Important information you need to know

There are a few more things we need to let you know before you take out Saga Home Insurance. These include more about Saga, your payment options and what happens after you take out your policy.

More about Saga

Saga Services Limited is registered in England and Wales (Company No. 732602). Registered Office: Enbrook Park, Sandgate, Folkestone, Kent CT20 3SE. Saga Services Limited and Acromas Insurance Company Limited are ultimately wholly owned subsidiaries of Saga plc.

Saga Services Limited is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA registered number is 311557). You can confirm Saga Services Limited's address and statutory status on the Financial Conduct Authority website at fca.org.uk/register or by contacting the Financial Conduct Authority on 0800 111 6768.

Saga's home insurance is provided by a number of specially selected insurers, chosen because they deliver the high standards we expect. A list of these insurers is available on request.

For your reassurance

Saga and the insurer shown on your Schedule are covered by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS). You may be entitled to compensation from this scheme if Saga or the insurer cannot meet their obligations. This depends on the type of insurance and the circumstances of your claim. Further information about compensation scheme arrangements is available from the FSCS website www.fscs.org.uk

The law applicable to our policies

Our policies are governed by the law of England and Wales unless we have agreed otherwise.

Choosing your excess

An 'excess' is the amount you have to pay towards any claim you make. For most claims this is at least £50, although for subsidence claims under buildings cover it can be £1,000. If you have a combined buildings and contents policy and make a claim under both sections, you will pay an excess on both sections.

Before taking out your policy, you can choose a higher excess in return for a lower premium. The higher the excess you choose, the greater the discount on your premium.

Ways to pay

You can choose to pay for your policy by Direct Debit or by credit or debit card, either annually or in instalments as set out opposite. However, please be aware that if you choose to pay in instalments and do not keep up to date with your payments, you will not be covered by your policy from the date the last premium was due.

Paying by Direct Debit

With this option you can spread the cost of your insurance throughout the year with monthly payments. This is an easy and convenient way to pay, and the Direct Debit Guarantee ensures it is a safe way too. (Charges may apply.)

The Direct Debit Guarantee is offered by all banks and building societies that accept instructions to pay Direct Debits. It means that if a payment error is made by either Saga Services Limited or your bank or building society, your branch will immediately give you a full refund of the amount paid. It also means that if there is a change to the amount or payment date, Saga Services Limited will notify you ten working days before the payment is taken, or as otherwise agreed. You can cancel your Direct Debit at any time by contacting your bank or building society and notifying Saga Services. Written confirmation may be required.

Paying by credit or debit card

With this option you can pay your premium in one upfront payment (by Visa, Mastercard, Maestro or Visa debit card) or by continuous authority annual or quarterly payments (by Visa, Mastercard or Visa debit card). If you choose continuous authority, Saga Services will advise you of the date and amount in advance and always let you know about any forthcoming changes.

After you've taken out your policy

As with most insurance policies, Saga Home Insurance is a 12 month policy. When you receive your policy documentation you have 14 days to decide whether the policy is right for you. After that your insurer will assume you have accepted the terms and wish your policy to continue for 12 months. However, if you need to cancel your policy, you may do so at any point. There are a few things we'd like to advise you of:

If you need to cancel your policy

If you feel the policy is not right for you, you may cancel it within 14 days of receiving your policy documents and no administration fee will be charged. If cover has not yet commenced (i.e. it is before the policy start date), you will receive a full refund of the premium. If the insurance cover has commenced (i.e. it is after the policy start date), your insurer will give you a pro-rata refund on your premium based on the cover you have had.

After the first 14 days, if the policy no longer meets your needs, you can still cancel it at any time. As long as you have not made a claim under the policy, or a claim has not been made against you, your insurer will refund the unused part of your premium. If you have made a claim, or a claim has been made against you, you will not receive a refund. Saga will charge an administration fee of £35.

If you wish to cancel your policy, you will need to notify us of this intention. You can do this by telephone on 0800 056 9060 or by writing to Saga Services Limited, Middelburg Square, Folkestone, Kent CT20 1AZ. Cancellation will take effect from the date you call us or your letter is posted, or from a future date you and your insurer have agreed to.

If we need to cancel your policy

Your insurer or Saga, on their behalf, may cancel your policy by giving you seven days' notice by recorded delivery letter to your last known address. Your insurer will then refund to you the unused part of your premium.

Legal Expenses Cover

Please note that if you or we cancel your Saga Home Insurance policy and you have selected Legal Expenses as an additional cover, this will automatically be cancelled at the same time. The additional premium is not refundable if cover has commenced.

Any fees you may need to pay

There are times when you may need to amend your policy, for example if you alter your cover. Saga will charge an administration fee for any changes. For the exact fee, please see 'What will you pay us for our services?' in the section of your Schedule entitled 'About our services – Your contract with Saga Services Limited'.

A note about fees and refunds

Please note that if you amend or cancel your policy and have paid by credit card or cheque, we will be unable to refund any amounts of £5 or less. Similarly, we will only request any charges from you if the amount is over £5.

How we handle your money
When collecting or refunding premiums, this is done through Saga Services Limited, who acts as the agent of the insurer.

However the insurer treats the payment as having been made directly to them, meaning that your money is protected.

If things don't go to plan and you want to complain.

If you have a complaint about any matter not related to a claim, please contact us on 01303 771160, write to us at The Customer Relations Department, Saga Services Limited, Middelburg Square, Folkestone, Kent CT20 1AZ or e-mail us at services.customer-relations@saga.co.uk

Saga and/or the insurer(s) will ensure that any personal data you provide will be held securely and in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998. From time to time Saga and/or the insurer(s) may use service providers and organisations outside the European Economic Area (EEA) for the purpose of processing services, system testing and maintenance. It is worth noting however that some non-EEA countries do not afford the same level of data security as the UK. By submitting your details, you consent to this transfer. The insurer(s) and/or, if applicable, Saga will always use every reasonable effort to ensure sufficient protections are in place to safeguard your personal information.

Your calls may be monitored and recorded in order that the service may be improved and to help prevent and detect fraud. Saga and/or the insurer(s) may check information provided or received and may also undertake additional fraud searches.

Credit Reference Bureaus: To assess your insurance application and the terms on which cover may be offered (including the quote and payment methods Saga and/or the insurer(s) is able to offer you), Saga and/or the insurer(s) may obtain information about you from a number of sources, including credit reference bureaus, to assess your financial and insurance risk and your identity. The credit reference bureaus will keep a record of the search; this may be reflected in your credit score.

In order to assess financial and insurance risk, we will make checks on the full and open registers of the electoral roll and public data provided to us by credit reference bureaus and other third parties. This is also to assess your premium at quote and renewal, for credit applications and to assist with identity checks in order to prevent money laundering.

By applying for this policy you consent to Saga and/or the insurer(s) processing personal data, including sensitive personal data, about you and any other persons who are the subject of that application and/or who may be insured under the policy. You understand that all personal data you provide must be accurate and that if you supply another person's personal data you are, by doing so, confirming that you have the specific consent of that other person to disclose that data.

Saga and/or the insurer will use your information (and that of other people insured by your policy), either collected at the outset or obtained from other third parties, for the following purposes:

- To assess financial and insurance risks;
- To prevent and detect crime including fraud, money laundering and financial sanctions;
- To develop our products, pricing, systems, services and relationships with you;
- To comply with our legal and regulatory obligations.

Saga and/or the insurer(s) may share this information with third parties in order to carry out insurance related activities on our behalf, including management of your claim, and legal advice.

From time to time Saga and/or the insurer(s) may need to disclose your personal and sensitive personal information and that of any other persons insured by your policy to other insurers, reinsurers, third party underwriters, credit reference bureaus, fraud prevention agencies, regulators and law enforcement agencies.

By accepting the original quotation and taking out this Saga policy you have provided us with permission on your own behalf and on behalf of any other persons insured by your policy to collate this personal sensitive data. You are deemed to have made any other persons insured by your policy aware of the information that has been captured and the uses disclosed.

Saga and/or the insurer(s) may transfer the rights and obligations existing under this policy of insurance.

If you contact us electronically we may store your Internet Protocol (IP) address or your telephone number supplied by your Service Provider. This may be used to identify repeat website visits, fraudulent behaviour or mystery shoppers using Saga Group websites.

By providing Saga with your personal information, and that of any other persons insured by your policy, including medical data, you consent to the Saga group of companies (the Group) using it to contact you or them by post, telephone, e-mail, SMS or other electronic means about offers, products and services which may be of interest to you, and using data we obtain about you for other products in respect of both marketing and preparing quotations. The Group will do this unless you contact it or you make use of the regular opportunities that it provides you with, to confirm which channels and products you do and do not wish to use or hear about, or unless you tell the Group that you prefer not to receive direct marketing. If you wish to decline to receive marketing information for Saga products, please contact the Saga Group Data Protection Officer at Enbrook Park, Sandgate, Folkestone, Kent CT20 3SE.
